

Villa-Lobos

Simon Wright

'The best concise biography available of Brazil's most renowned composer. It also provides a valuable perspective of contemporaneous political events in Brazil and the personal life of the composer...The conclusions drawn by Wright are thought-provoking and are bound to stimulate additional research and study of the life of Villa-Lobos...Simon Wright's biography represents a splendid addition to the valuable Oxford Studies of Composers series.'

David Appleby, M L Notes

- Focuses attention on important or unusual works from [Villa-Lobos's] large oeuvre, charts [his]own often anguished musical journey through the Brazilian landscape
- His [Villa-Lobos] personal journey of discovery and fulfilment is clearly explained, set against the pervasive backdrop of social and political upheaval which characterized Brazil during Villa-Lobos's lifetime
